COLLEGE GIRLS AND BOYS ELOPE

Chased by Professors From Bristol, But Win by Five Minutes.

BRISTOL, VA .- Special .- After rilling flight, in which they were autos, the eloping girls from Sullins College, returned to the city this morning with their grooms, two "prep" students at King College. The couples are Samuel Wood and Miss Eula Mae Gavin and Kent Kane and Miss Anna Harris. The girls are from Alabama and Florida, respectively.
The couples went down through
East Tennessee in an auto. The college authorities and police were thrown of by a note left by the girls at the college, stating that they had gone home. The pursuers got a late start, but made a flying run and arrivied at Church Hill, Hawkins county, Tenn., just five minutes after the ceremony had been completed.

An Official Report.

From the Chicago Record-Herald.

The section foreman was laboriously filling out a report covering the killing of a cow by the second section of No. 64. The fussy claim agent certainly required an unreasonable amount of in-formation, as evidenced by the printed questions on the blank form: "Number of train?"

"Number of engine?"
"Name of conductor?"
"Name of engineer?"
"Speed of train?"

Where was animal struck?" Ole succeeded but indifferently until he came to the final question, and here he experienced the inward consciousness of one qualified when he wrote

Disposition of animal?" "He ban wan kind and gentle cow,
